Ryker has always been in love with Garrett's younger sister, Emily. But he's never acted on his feelings, knowing that it would jeopardize their friendship. Garrett, on the other hand, has always been aware of Ryker's feelings for Emily. He's never said anything, but he's always been secretly jealous.

When Emily starts dating another guy, Ryker and Garrett's friendship is put to the test. Ryker can't stand the thought of Emily with someone else, and Garrett can't bear to see his best friend in pain. But Emily is determined to make her own choices, and she doesn't want to be the reason for her brother and his best friend to fight.

As the tension between Ryker and Garrett grows, they're forced to confront their own feelings. Ryker realizes that he can't keep his love for Emily a secret any longer. And Garrett realizes that he can't let his jealousy ruin his friendship with Ryker.

But just when Ryker and Garrett are finally ready to admit their feelings, Emily drops a bombshell that changes everything. She's pregnant with another man's child.

Ryker and Garrett are devastated. They both love Emily, but they know that they can't be with her. But they're determined to be there for her, as friends and as the fathers of her child.
