

Where the Lost Wander: A Journey into the Depths of Grief, Loss, and Redemption

Where the Lost Wander is a novel by Amy Harmon that tells the story of Abby Abernathy, a young woman who loses her husband, Ethan, in a car accident. Abby is devastated by Ethan's death and struggles to cope with her grief. She withdraws from her friends and family and begins to lose herself in her sorrow.

One day, Abby meets Luke, a kind and compassionate man who helps her to start to heal. Luke is patient with Abby and gives her the space she needs to grieve. He also encourages her to talk about Ethan and to remember the good times they had together.
